

205 Split Goes To County

By MARGE RATCLIFFE

LOCKPORT — The Lockport District 205 High School Board of Education voted four to three to petition the County Board of School Trustees to detach Valley View District 96 and Wheatland District 40-C from the Lockport High School District.

The decision came after a series of speakers, both for and against the split, spoke before the board at a special meeting held Thursday, May 7. Petitions bearing nearly 9,000 signatures in favor of splitting the district were presented to the board.

Other petitions were presented which were not in favor of a split in the district. Dale Sealy of Crest Hill presented petitions with the signatures of 1,370 Crest Hill residents who oppose the split and requested the school board to do "everything in their power" to keep the district together. Sealy contends that Crest Hill has been "forgotten," and added he does not feel a split would be to either side's advantage.

Paul Jurca presented petitions with 78 signatures of residents who wish to detach from 205 and attach to the Lemont High School District. The area in question is from I-55 south to Joliet Road almost to Rt. 53, south to the river, northeast to the county line and north back to I-55. The area includes part of the Santa Fe industrial complex. Jurca told the board that he and his committee had talked to the Lemont School Board and that they seemed willing to accept them into the district.

The decision now rests with the county board of school trustees. Members of the board are Howard Harshbarger, William S. Gray, Harold Schmitz, Richard P. Oetter, Paul E. Thurlow, Robert Hohenstein and Harlow Jensen. Boyd Bucher is an ex-officio member and the board's secretary.

George Michas addressed the board, stating he represented nearly 5,000 petitioners on the east side of the district. Michas feels

Push Land Sale; Grant Temporary Repairs

LEMONT — The village board of trustees moved closer to getting funds for a new village hall during their meeting Monday night.

The trustees approved publication of a notice for bids on five parcels of property owned by the village. These include the old water works, the village hall, the fire station and a number of vacant lots.

Revenue from sales would be used for construction purposes. The board during a meeting last month indicated a municipal garage would be built if some of the property can be sold at a favorable price.

Mayor John Kujawa many times during the past six months has said he would like to see a new village hall, and he promoted selling village property.

Information for bidding purposes will be published in the form of legal notices.

The trustees also approved repairs and alterations to the village hall.

The Circuit Court of Cook County, which holds court the first Monday of the month in the village hall, has felt the press of cramped quarters on the ground floor. The court uses the meeting room used by the trustees.

Jack Weber, trustee, was directed to accept a low bid of $647 from Wohead Builders for construction of two paneled enclosures in the second floor meeting hall, plus relocation of the judge's bench to the second floor.

Chief of police Frank Sowa explained one room was needed for the judge, the other for states' attorneys. There would be much more seating room upstairs, also. Court-imposed traffic fines add several thousands of dollars annually to the village general fund.

Roof repairs for the village hall and the fire station were also authorized. Weber said the low bid was from the Elens Roofing Co., Lockport, for $335 to repair leaks, with work guaranteed for a year. Weber was told to accept the bid.

Sowa told the trustees the state is providing, for only the cost of installation, three mobile radios for use in the two village squad cars, and at the station. These will be tuned into the statewide Illinois State Police Emergency Radio Network.

Board Concurs In Denial Of Trailers

FRANKFORT — Fred E. Jurcak, of Prestwick, who had plans to establish a mobile home park along U.S. 45 south of here, appeared before the Will County board of supervisors in Joliet last Wednesday morning to urge them to overrule the county zoning board of appeals which had denied his petition for re-zoning.

There had been a formal objection filed to the petition so that to overrule the appeals board Jurcak would have had to win support of three fourths of the board members. He failed. The board voted to concur in the appeals body's recommendation.

Jurcak did not say whether he would take the case to court or make some other use of the 32 acres involved. Ownership of the land was not disclosed at the zoning hearing. It is being held as a beneficial trust and Jurcak appears as the developer.

He told the supervisors that he had planned to develop a mobile home park with paved streets, curbs and gutters, and provide water and sewers, off-street parking, tennis courts and a swimming pool. The trailers would be sold at the site, fully furnished, for $15,000.

He said that objectors complained it would be detrimental to farming.

"The people there are asking $2,500 and more an acre and when prices like that are spoken of it isn't for farming," he said.

He also denied that a trailer park would add to traffic congestion on U.S. 45, saying that a state count showed approximately 2,500 cars a day travel U.S. 45 south of Frankfort, and 6,000 a day use U.S. 30 at Frankfort. He contended that a mobile home park would be beneficial to Frankfort but that Frankfort turned down various projects that would have helped the village.

Hunt 2 Murderers Of Householder

By GLENN LOGAN

MARLEY — County and state police are still pressing investigation of the cold-blooded murder of Joseph A. Calderone, 42, who resided on the curve on U.S. 6, opposite Ruth Drive, and formerly of Tinley Park.

He was shot and instantly killed when he opened his front door in response to pleas from two negroes that they were having car trouble.

His killers then pushed his body in the front hall and went upstairs. There they encountered Mrs. Calderone (Helen) who had gotten out of bed when she heard the noise from the shot. She had only been released from the hospital the week before, after undergoing surgery.

At gun point she was driven back to the bedroom. She was made to lie on the bed and then her hands and ankles were tied with wire and adhesive tape plastered across her mouth.

The killers took $22 from Mrs. Calderone's purse and her husband's wallet, and a typewriter. After tearing the telephone loose, they left the house.

Mrs. Calderone was able to work herself loose from her bonds and then roused her stepson, Anthony, 17, a student at Providence High School, who had slept through the affair. He went to a neighbor's house and called the sheriff's office. Deputy Robert Brown was dispatched to the scene and Mokena Police Chief Wayne Ryder was asked to meet the deputy there.

RECENTLY a bust of Ludwig van Beethoven, noted composer, and the pedestal on which it sat, disappeared from its accustomed place in Chicago's Lincoln Park, and the fact caused inquiries to be made as to its whereabouts. It was learned that the pedestal, which was of sandstone, was so deteriorated that it had to be replaced. Bust and pedestal were packed off to the Tri-County Cut Stone Co. plant at Frankfort. A new base and a new pedestal were fashioned. While this work was going on Beethoven's bust was placed on a shelf inside a building where stone is sawed. There some considerate soul put a straw hat on Beethoven's head to shield his locks, no doubt, from the stone dust. Bust, pedestal and base were shipped back to Lincoln Park at the end of April. (GRAPHIC Photos)

According to Coroner Willard G. Blood, the bullet was a heavy caliber. It entered below the left eye and penetrated the brain.

Mrs. Calderone told the officers that they had retired before 11 o'clock (May 4) and a little after the hour the doorbell was rung. Her husband went downstairs and returned a couple of minutes later to say that two negro men had driven into the driveway and come to the door to ask for help, that they were having car trouble.

His wife admonished him not to let them in the house and to be careful. Calderone drew on a pair of trousers and his shoes but before going back downstairs, picked up an ancient, unloaded pistol that was in the bedroom and took it with him.

As near as investigators could learn he apparently had started to open the door when one of his visitors opened fire. The one shot was fatal. The killers also carried off the old pistol Calderone had. One of the men was described as about six feet tall and wearing a grey suit, the other was shorter, stockily built and having an Afro-style hair cut.

Mr. Calderone had been employed for the past 23 years as a freight handler for the Highway and City Transportation Co., Inc. of Chicago. Because of the truck strike in Chicago he had been laid off.

Besides his wife, nee Helen Latham, and his son, Anthony, Mr. Calderone is survived by a daughter, Claire, of Chicago; a stepdaughter, Eloise Ferguson; his mother, Mrs. Helen McKechnie Calderone, and a brother, John. His father, Augustus Calderone, preceded him in death.

Funeral services were conducted last Saturday, May 9, at the Panozzo Brothers chapel, 300 E. 115th st., Chicago, with the Rev. T. O'Connell officiating. Interment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Lions Repairing Damaged Den

NEW LENOX — Fire of undetermined origin damaged the Lions Den on S. Cedar Rd., New Lenox, last Monday night. A boy passing by saw flames and gave the alarm, according to the report.

The fire apparently started in the basement ceiling and could have been due to some electrical defect. The Lions Club, which owns the building, had it re-wired a couple of years ago. The members plan to repair the damage.

The building once served as a Roman Catholic Church. Since it was purchased by the Lions it has served as a community center for churches and other organizations. There is playground equipment on the grounds and it has been a popular spot with youngsters in summer months.

But for prompt work by the volunteer fire department the entire building would have been destroyed.

New Lenox Appropriation Ordinance Adopted

NEW LENOX — The annual appropriation ordinance — fattened this year by the financing of the sewage plant and sewer system improvement program — has been adopted by the New Lenox village board. The budget total comes to $1,947,250 and appears in detail on another page in this issue.

The ordinance was prepared by James Heams, village treasurer, Wayne Johnson, village attorney, and the members of the village board in charge of the various departments.

Johnson pointed out that appropriation ordinances are guidelines, and that because money is appropriated for various purposes it does not mean that it will be spent. All it means, he explained, is that money can be spent, if it is available, only on those items listed in the appropriation ordinance. The tax levy ordinance will be adopted later.

New Lenox wound up the past fiscal year, which ended April 30, some $20,000 in the black, Heams told the board.

A resolution prepared by John Djerf, of Robert E. Hamilton Consulting Engineers, which serves New Lenox — was adopted covering the street maintenance program this year paid out of the village's share of the state motor fuel tax fund.

Streets listed include: Inner Court, Elm, Maple Lane, Vine, Wood, Hickory, N. Cooper, S. Cooper, Pine, Fourth Av., Central and Center roads. They are to be scarified, graded, stone added, and resurfaced. The estimated cost, including engineering fees, totals $30,000.

Djerf presented a change order for a pump to be used at the treatment plant. It meets specifications, he said, and will save the village $2,100. The order was approved.

The board also approved a program to provide more hours of inspection of the sewage plant job. It may run to approximately $5,000 but the trustees believe it will be money well spent.

The sanitary sewer on South Pine St., between 1st and 2d avenues, is plugged. Some water is coming through but not the full flow. If allowed to persist there will be water in some basements, it was explained. The village is now getting figures on the cost of repair.

There may be a broken tile or tiles and Roy Dowle, the village business manager, recommended that when the trouble area is excavated that the lines be probed in both directions to make certain they are clear. The plug was located by use of the rodding machine owned by the village of Frankfort but it couldn't be cleared.

When the Curtis Forbes home at 2d and Cedar burned some months ago the family was permitted to occupy a trailer on the lot until the new house was built. The new home is not quite completed but the family has been given a temporary occupancy permit and have moved in. The trailer is unoccupied and Forbes plans to dispose of it shortly.

A request by residents of Prairie Rd. that a permit for a third apartment building be rescinded was denied. The zoning permits such a building and Village Attorney Johnson explained that zoning is by categories and not specific uses. The board could rescind the permit, he said, but it would likely be buying a lawsuit.

The village is to get bids on a new squad car.

Rules Pass, Zone Next

LEMONT — the village trustees last week adopted subdivision rules and regulations at a special meeting called to review those, plus a proposed zoning ordinance.

After the Tuesday meeting, Mayor John Kujawa said "nothing was changed" as he, the trustees and village attorney and engineer went over the proposals, which were presented in draft form by the plan commission.

Kujawa described the new subdivision rules and regulations as "more complete, and complex" than the existing guideline. The new rules were adopted.

A "rather comprehensive" zoning ordinance proposal "that improves an awful lot" on the existing one was also discussed. "It was so well thought out, that no one had any questions," according to Kujawa.

It has been before the plan commission and other officials of the village for more than two years, and was drawn up by a planning firm.

The zoning ordinance cannot be made law until a public hearing is held. Kujawa said he planned to appoint a commission by this week's village trustees' meeting. It will set a hearing date and conduct the hearing.

A copy of the new rules, and of the proposed zoning ordinance, are available in the village hall for inspection.

Lockport Is First

LOCKPORT — Tonage statistics for the eight locks on the Illinois Waterway show that the Lockport Locks handled the largest load of iron and steel. Other commodities passing through the locks include bituminous coal, petroleum and grains, giving Lockport a total of 2,178,850 tons for the month of March.

C Of C Has Opinion Poll

FRANKFORT — An opinion poll is being taken in Frankfort under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce to ascertain the public's views on a variety of subjects.

There are 27 questions which in turn are divided into more questions that cover a wide front. The topics introduced start with schools and education. From there they go through snow removal, street maintenance and traffic, sidewalks, storm drainage, the 1890 theme, parking space, stores, jobs, noise, pollution, odors, industry, housing, recreation, the library and the police and fire departments.

The questionnaire also wants to know if the person filling it out is satisfied with the attractiveness of the entrances to Frankfort; what are the advantages of living there; what are the disadvantages; and would one be willing to donate some time to development of community projects?

Among the questions asked are whether one is willing to pay additional taxes to provide storm drainage and whether they would be willing to financially support construction of sidewalks in their neighborhoods.

Should village officials encourage the location of industry in Frankfort, is one of the questions with a yes or no answer indicated and then space is given to express why one answered it the way he did.

As in most polls there is also a "no opinion" box one may mark if undecided.

People also are asked if they think Frankfort is in need of an additional store or stores and if so what type of store would they like, and if it was opened would they support it?

If anyone is of the opinion that Frankfort offers a sufficient variety and quantity of housing he can mark it "yes" and let it go at that. But if he makes it "no" then he is asked to check what specific type he believes is needed — residential (apparently single family), apartments, mobile homes, townhouses and condominiums.

No signatures are required.

Mokena Is Observing National Police Week

MOKENA — This is National Police Week and Mokena is honoring the members of its department. Mayor Will Tuttle has issued a proclamation for the event. Police are making talks at schools explaining the functions, equipment and services of the department, and also meeting with Scout groups.

At each place of business in the village, police are placing a seal inside the front door with a number under it. This number is cross-filed in the department's records, with the owner's name, address and telephone number listed, as well as what personnel to call in the event of an emergency involving the business.

Friday night a program is scheduled starting at 8 o'clock in the Willowcrest School gymnasium at which the police department is making awards to residents of the community. Attendance at this meeting is by invitation.

Police Chief Wayne Ryder also announced that plans are in the making for the department to give the safety school patrol members — there are girls as well as boys on the patrol — a day at Wrigley Field to see the Cubs in action. The policemen will buy the tickets, provide the transportation, and the sustenance to prevent any of their young guests from starving between the time they leave and return to their homes.

Members of the Mokena department work hard to improve themselves in police skills and knowledge and attend schools to that end. Chief Ryder himself also attends schools and has passed numerous long and complex examinations.

Mokena has one of the best record systems of any of the smaller departments and observers would rate it high with larger departments. There are three radio operators and the department can be reached by telephone 24 hours a day. In the past year the department handled 3,798 telephone calls.

It has helped various neighboring departments in emergencies, and like other police departments in the outlying sections of the county has been pressed into service by the sheriff's office. It has also aided state and federal law enforcing agencies. The men are all uniformed and present a neat appearance on duty.

Mayor Tuttle's proclamation follows: "Whereas, The Congress of the United States of America has designated the week of May 15th, to be dedicated as "National Police Week," and May 15th of each year to be "Police Memorial Day," and

"Whereas, The Law Enforcement officers are our guardians of life and property, defenders of the individual right to be free men, warriors in the war against crime, and dedicated to the preservation of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and

"Whereas, The Village of Mokena, Illinois desires to honor the valor, service and dedication of its own police officers,

"We therefore proclaim that the week of May 15, 1970 to May 22, 1970 to be Police Week and call upon all our citizens in this community to especially honor and show our sincere appreciation for the Police Officers of this Village by deed, remark and attitude. I call upon all our citizens to make every effort to express their thanks to our men who make it possible for us to leave our homes and family in safety each day and to return to our homes knowing they are protected by men willing to sacrifice their lives, if necessary, to guard our loved ones, property and government against all those who would violate the Law.

"Signed this sixth day of May at the Village of Mokena, State of Illinois, in witness thereof the seal and signature of this Village are affixed. Will Tuttle, Mayor - Village of Mokena, Illinois.

"Attest: Village Clerk, Alvin S. Sorensen."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor:

Earth Day, 1970, brought to mind the many sights for sore eyes in Lockport, Illinois. Dellwood Park, some well kept homes, and the library. But alas! she also has eye sores, one of which is the vacant field behind the homes on Maryknoll Drive and at the back of the shopping center. My sister and I thought it a nice gesture to clean it up, with 14 others, ranging in age from five to twelve.

It has not been an impossible task. Everyday, we dump liberal amounts of garbage in the refuse bins behind the various stores. Soon we will have it licked. Mayor George Nordstrom has said he will speak with several store owners about the heavy garbage they themselves have dumped.

Whether or not we can have a bonfire May 2 with wood collected remains to be seen. Regardless, DeDe, Gary, Cheryl, Timmy, Terry, Chip, Peter, Chuck, Gordy, Russell, Ron, Ken, Danny, Anita, Kim, Sandy and Kimberly will come together on a job well done, for a sing-song and hot dogs, etc.

Thank you for your time.

This letter is to residents of Lincoln Estates.

The school board has been busy this past week (last week of April).

On April 24, the board met with Arbury Hills and Mr. Wrath of the county superintendent's office for a study session involving consolidation. Mr. Kuchan, Mr. Robertson and Mr. Cooper were missing. Since it was a study session nothing was completed except to get general information and feelings.

On April 27, the president called a special meeting for the purpose of considering consolidation. All members were present. After discussing the pros and cons of consolidation, the board recessed until May 6 at 7:30 at which time the discussion will continue. The board was honored by the presence of seven interested citizens. If you wish to hear more about consolidation or to offer your views and opinions you should attend the May 6 meeting.

On April 29, the board again met in special session to discuss teacher's salaries and superintendent's contract. All members were present at the meeting.

The first order of business was a discussion with teachers at which a settlement on salary was made. The teachers will start at $7,300 and continue up to $10,325 with a possible $10,550 as state aid goes over $550. The discussion became quite heated at certain points.

After the salary was decided, a citizen asked to speak to Board and teachers and after starting was ruled out of order, even though he pointed out the meeting was specifically called for talk with the teachers. This meeting was adjourned.

The special meeting called to discuss the superintendent's contract came to order. Before any discussion can take place, it is necessary for a motion to be on the floor. Mrs. Bluth moved that the superintendent be rehired at a salary of $12,500. Mr. Fields seconded it. Mr. Scheeler then asked for a vote.

Mr. Kuchan, Mr. Cooper, Mr. Fields and Mrs. Bluth voted in favor; Mr. Schofield and Mr. Robertson against. Mrs. Bluth then moved a committee of Mr. Schofield, Mr. Robertson and Mr. Cooper, with Mr. Willson and a teacher as advisers, be set up to establish teacher policies. Mr. Cooper seconded it and the motion passed.

At this point, the board retired to an executive session. After the session ended, Mr. Scheeler then asked the teachers for any complaints or comments at which time the teachers said it was too late for comment. The board then asked for an executive session with the teachers.

At this time, the same citizen who was ruled out of order pointed out that this was out of order since the special meeting was not set up for this purpose.

The president of the board ignored this and again ruled . . . After this executive session, the citizens were asked if they had any complaints or comments. Several comments were voiced about the school.

May 13, at 7:30, is the next regular board meeting.

Sincerely,
Howard R. Bluth

On April 8 a full page ad in The Shopper gave a comparison of the expenditures per pupil for various high school districts in the state. These figures taken from the Illinois Education Effort Study, are identical to the "Per Capita Tuition Charge" in the Report of Local School District Expense, 1967-68 issued by the Illinois Superintendent of Public Instruction. It is calculated by subtracting from the total expenditures those not applicable to the operating expense of the regular school program plus revenue from state and federal funds, textbook sales, lunch sales, ticket sales, etc., and dividing by the number of students.

The ad claims that the per pupil expenditures are "really the best criteria of support." The per pupil expenditure (more accurately the Per Capita Tuition Charge) is, absolutely, no criterion of support. Expenditures mean the cost of operating the schools: salaries, supplies, heat, lights, etc. Tax support means the income from local taxes. In order for a school district to operate without deficit, the two should be equal. According to the business office of District 205, this year, the local taxes are short about $287.90 per student in meeting the expenditure per student.

The Illinois Education Effort Study compares districts of about the same size. District 205 is included in a list of 22 secondary schools of 3,000-5,999 enrollment.

A comparison of tax rates in the educational fund for 1969 shows that District 205 is the lowest of the 22 schools. (See Circular Series A No. 254, 1968 Assessed Valuation and 1969 Tax Rates!) In the three years I was on the school board, we have publicized, widely, the mounting deficit and have made repeated effort to have the tax rate raised by referendum.

I do not believe that personnel have been wastefully and inefficiently used as charged. A detailed calculation shows that, this year, the average class size is 23.4 students (excluding driver training classes). We have tried to maintain a ratio of one counselor to 300 students, as required. We have tried to maintain a remedial reading program to correct the deficiencies of those children who have not learned to read adequately in elementary school. We have provided driver's training and driver's education as required. It is true that this year there are a few classes (in agriculture, foreign language, and art) which are too small. Classes of this size should be eliminated, but it is sometimes impossible to balance the teacher's specialization and the student's need to make an efficient class size. There are certainly possibilities for improving the efficiency of operation as well as the educational process, but to think that such change can eliminate deficit spending is wishful thinking. The only thing that can eliminate deficit spending is more tax monies. For the sake of our young people let us face up to this fact now.

Yours sincerely,
Frank J. Lynch

As a member of the older generation who is getting just a little sick of sitting around listening to my contemporaries gripe and complain about the "now generation," I would like to go on record with a great big "Thanks" to the thousands of young people who rose at 6 a.m. on Sunday, May 3, to join the Hunger March.

These "crazy teenagers" walked over 25 miles through Park Forest, Chicago Heights, Olympia Fields, Homewood, and Flossmoor after having obtained pledges from surprisingly few oldsters to contribute so much per mile for their efforts.

Many complacent, well-to-do people refused to contribute with the excuse of "let 'em work." Perhaps if the news media had given some advance publicity to the fact that these youngsters walked to raise money for under-privileged people all over the world, not as a hand out but for job-training programs for those anxious to help themselves, those more fortunate would have had a better understanding.

For several days before the march took place, I listened hopefully for some advance news of it, but I heard nothing but numerous accounts of rioting, pot smoking students and gang wars. Nothing whatever was mentioned of the thousands of normal, eager, young people who care enough to try to do something positive about the extremely frightening state of our world.

As a mother of two daughters with badly blistered feet but very happy hearts, I would like to thank the clergymen, teachers, and the very few businessmen who contributed to the march.

It was a little disappointing to note that out of between six and seven thousand walkers in this particular Hunger March, so few came from our area.

Could it be that they were discouraged by their parents, or the lack of publicity? It also makes one wonder who in this admittedly sick world is the sicker.

Is it the younger generation who try to help by marching, public service, and going off to give their lives in wars? Is it the rebellious teenagers who cop-out and then join the hippie movement and the gangs and resort to violence? Or is it the successful oldsters who click their teeth, shake their heads and say "We can't understand them. We worked all our lives to give them everything."

What is everything - cars, clothes, fine homes, and other over-indulgences - or tolerance, consideration, love and respect for others, a sense of responsibility, and recognition for these accomplishments?

Sincerely
Rosemary L. Wheeler

I wonder if the parents of Lincoln-Way High School students realize how severely the proposed Hoffman Roesner development could crowd our high school?

The school's present indebtedness is such that it just isn't geared for a mass influx of students.

Do parents of students and prospective students realize that schools are getting some very good concessions from these big developers?

Do parents think our schools will get good concessions if we don't show our support and grave concern?

I am very proud to have a student at Lincoln-Way, and feel that the very least I can do is show my concern and offer my wholehearted support and tireless efforts if this is necessary.

Why don't you call the school and say "I am a concerned parent, isn't there something I can do to help in this matter?" It's the very least we can do for administrators and teachers who have consistently maintained such high standards for the youth of our community.

Studies Received

LOCKPORT — The Lockport Waterworks and Sewerage System has received the sewer systems study from Consoer, Townsend and Associates, Consulting Engineers, who were retained last fall.

The firm has submitted to the Board of Trustees the initial draft of the report and maps of their analysis of the existing sewer system and projected system to serve the potential metropolitan area as defined in the proposed comprehensive master plan.

that a reorganization or a split is the only solution to the district's problems. He stated that the people in his group were "education oriented" and had helped the current board and previous boards in attempts to get referenda passed. "Now," said Michas, "we are asking you for help."

Harold Lindstrom, representing the west side of 205, said his petitions represent two-thirds of the legal voters in the area which wished to detach and that if the board would not honor their request, they would take their petitions directly to the county board. Lindstrom further stated the signatures represented far more people than had ever voted in a school election, and were obtained in only one week.

Vito Martinez, also from the west side of the district, told the board the proceedings reminded him of a divorce hearing. He noted the division of thought which has occurred in the past few months, and said he had joined the committee working for the split reluctantly. Martinez stated that research would show that the new district would and could pass referenda in sufficient quantity and amount to build what they think is necessary.

Leonard Moore, a teacher at Lockport

West and president of the Lockport Teachers' Organization, spoke against the split. He said he had polled the teachers, and that 134 are against the split, 47 for it, and added that two ballots were spoiled.

Moore cited two reasons for his opposition: one, that there is no guarantee it will be beneficial to all the children and, two, nobody knows at present where the industrial growth in the community will be. He feels the district stands a much better chance united than divided.

Jim Peerman, a Lockport resident who is opposed to the split, asked the board to look into the situation through a task force, and then abide by their decision. He added that if 7,000 people could only be organized for the betterment of education, it would really be a step forward for the community.

Frank Lynch, who introduced himself as "a reformed member of the high school board" posed several questions to Lindstrom, pertaining to the tax revenue. Lynch said that if a split were enforced now, between 47 and 49 percent of the tax revenue would be in District 96, while between 51 and 53 percent would remain in 205.

He pointed out that the district is currently $300 short per student, and if the district were split, would be $390 short. Lynch said he could well understand the motivation of the west side, who were tired of crowded schools and a second-rate education, but he felt in the short haul, both sides would be "worse-off" financially.

Bob Shanks, the village president of Bolingbrook, said he had worked hard, and gone door-knocking for referenda that failed. He said he represents the "little people," who still have the right to petition, when they would like things changed. He told the board he did not ask for an endorsement, just that they present the problem to the county board.

Shanks added that he was not "against" Crest Hill, and added that his area was the only one which has consistently supported the board's proposals. He cited full-page ads run on the east side, in conjunction with the east side's unwillingness to build schools on the west side.

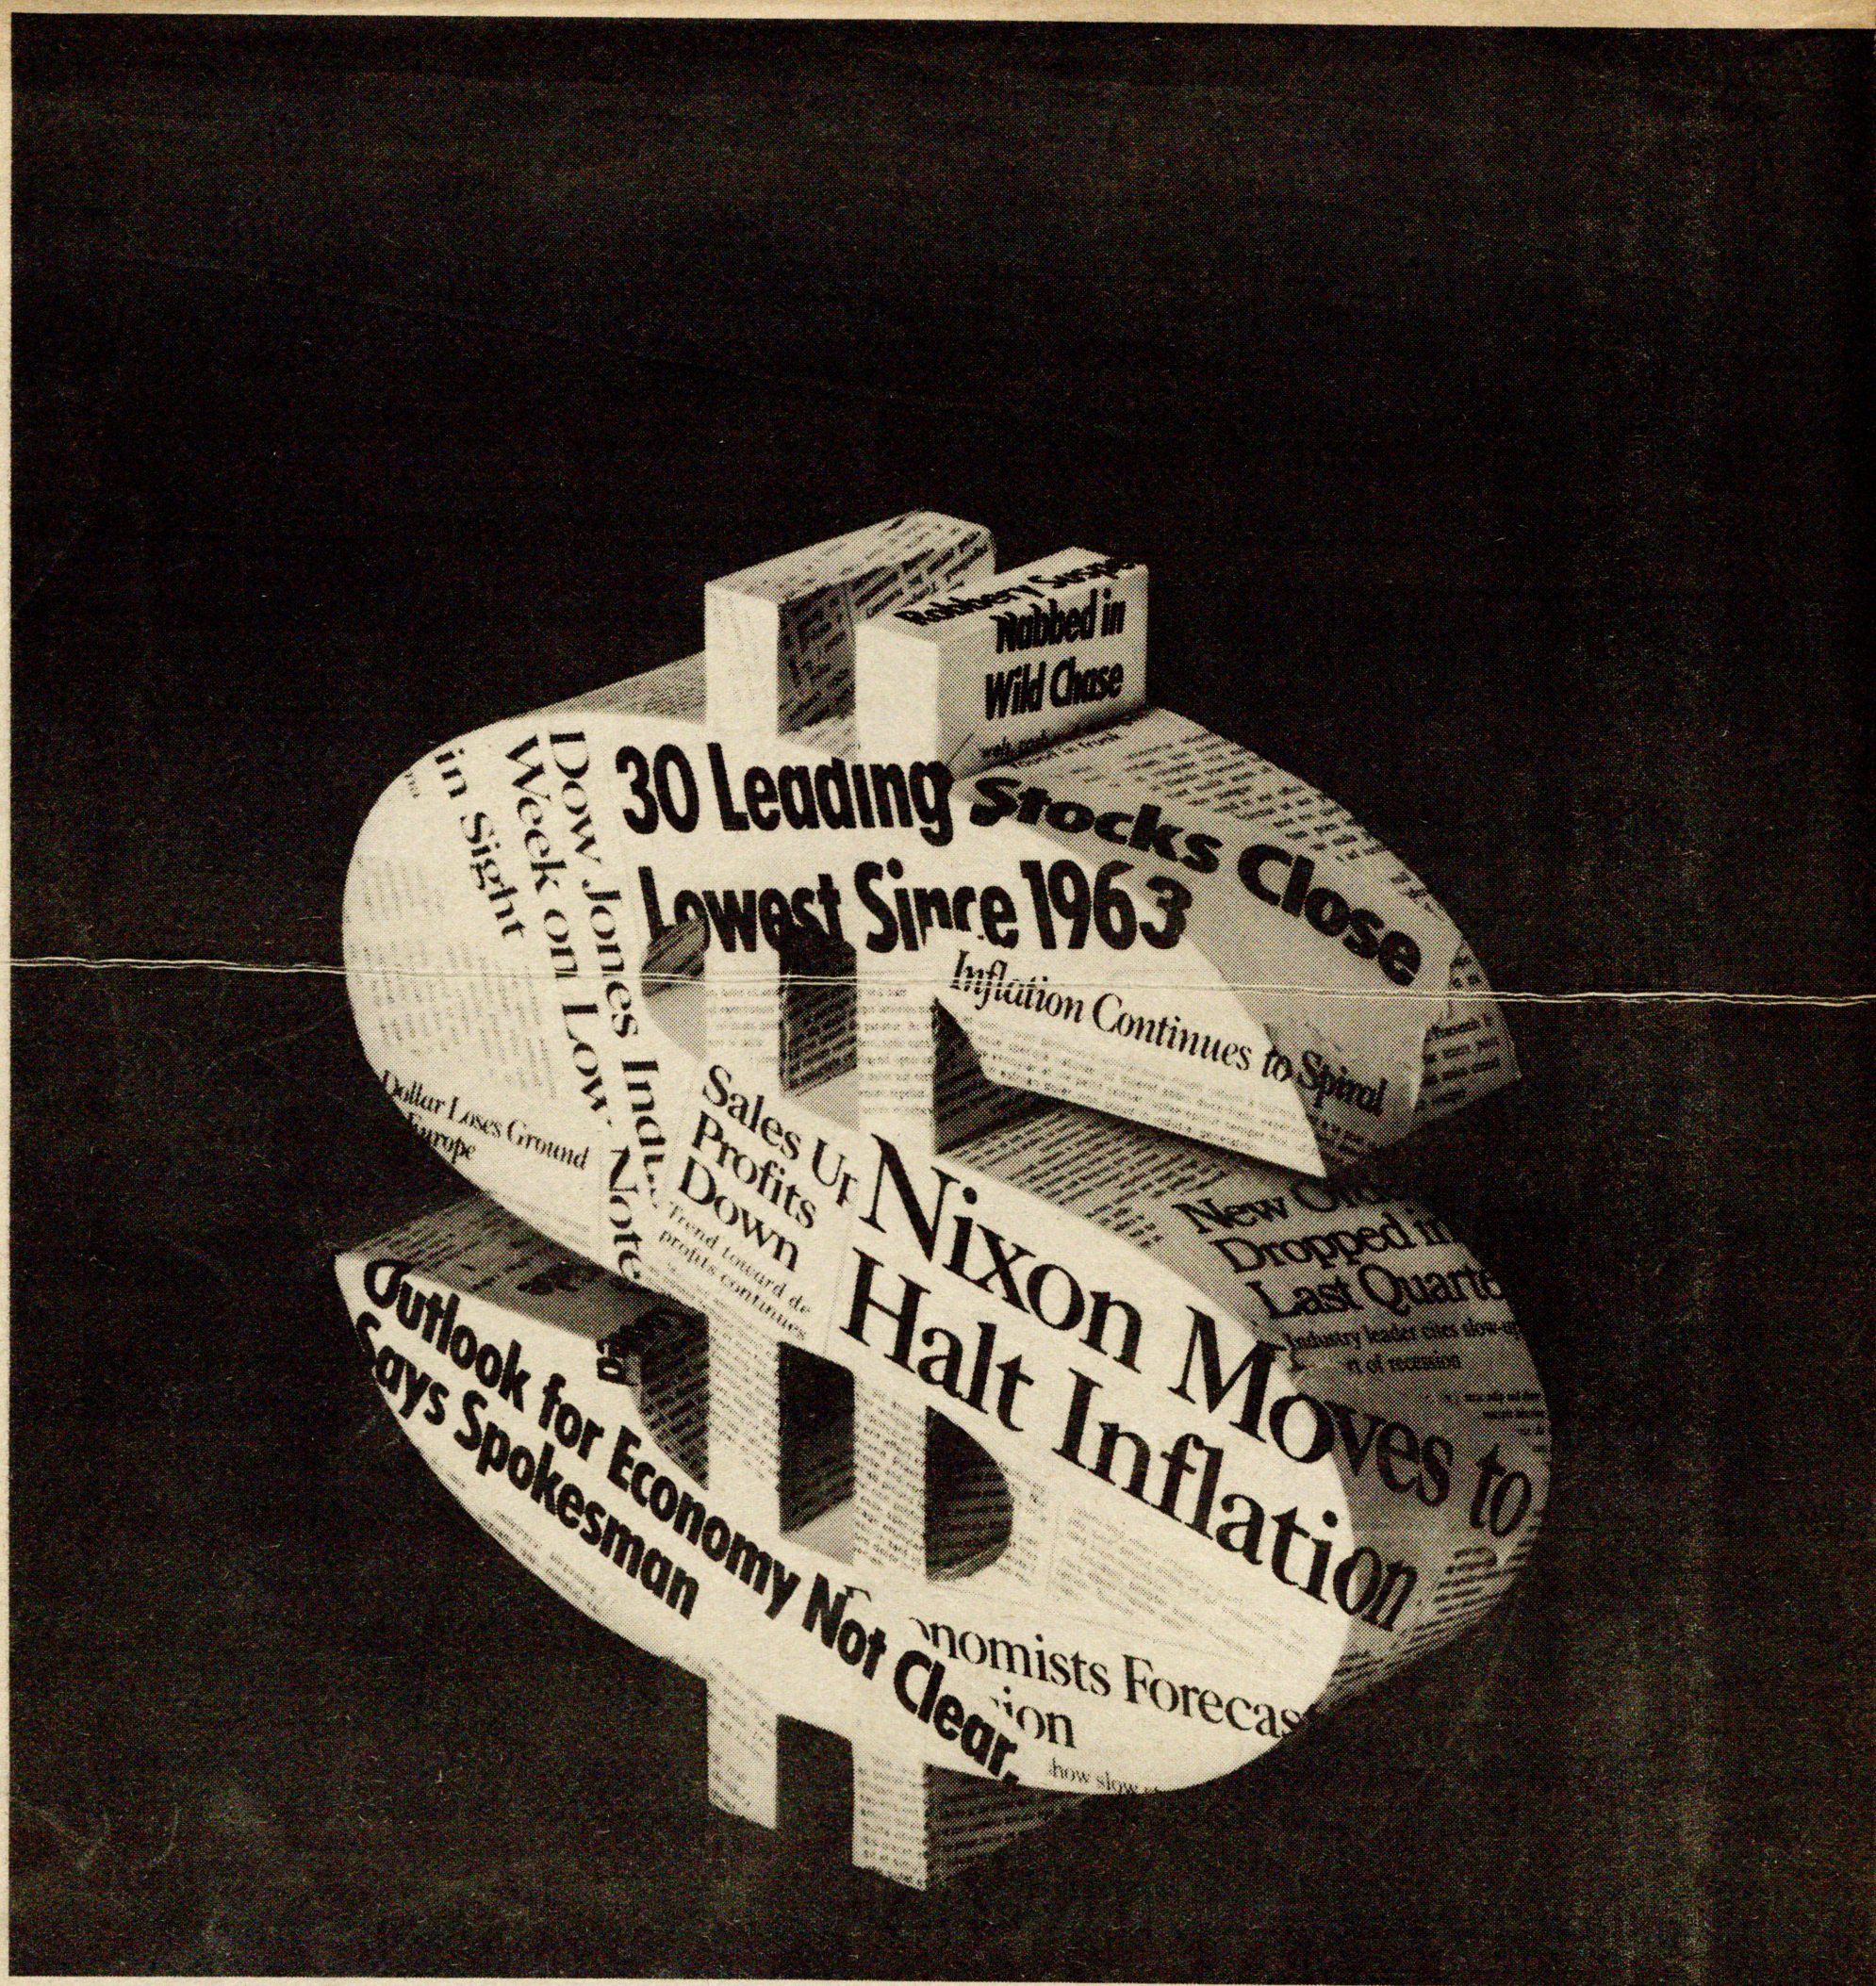

He added that voters are "funny," and stated it is hard to vote "for" things. He concluded his remarks with a statement directed at the board. "Time and again," said Shanks, "you've called on us, and we've answered. Now for the first time, we're asking your help. We ask for a hearing. We deserve our chance."

Dick Manley and Charles Wyne, both teachers in the district, spoke against the proposal. Manley cited the turmoil he said would take place in the district, especially in rescheduling. He feels it is not an opportune time as far as next year's education is concerned. Wyne said there were two major problems the division would not solve.

He said it would not reduce the birth rate, would not mean that kids can be educated without money. He said he admired the committee's efforts, though he feels they are misguided efforts, "born of frustration and despair." The major problem, Wyne concluded, is still dollars.

When the board voted on the decision, William Brill, president, Joan Straka, William Waldon, and Stanley Chapas cast "yes" votes, while Stephen Platko, Jerry Harlan and Felix Borio voted "no". Harlan said he was opposed to the split on educational grounds. Borio said his vote was based on the best interests of all the children of District 205, and that he thought a split, at this or any other time, was unwise.

We know a nice, safe place where your money can be earning $5\frac{3}{4}\%$. And earning. And earning. And earning.

We see by the papers that many people feel insecure about money.

The stock market goes up or it goes down. We have inflation or recession. Our economy gets better or it gets worse.

Wouldn't it be great if you could save money at high interest? And have some kind of guarantee that it would be safe and go on earning high interest even while conditions remain uncertain?

You can. Consider these savings plans:

$5\frac{3}{4}\%$ "Golden 24" Savings Certificates.

This savings plan allows you to purchase "Golden 24" Savings Certificates for as little as \$100 and earn $5\frac{3}{4}\%$ guaranteed interest. Of course, the more you save, the more you earn. The only requirement is that the funds remain on deposit for 24 months from date of purchase. This offers you the highest bank interest rate for this type of plan allowed by federal law!

And, depending on certificate amount, earned interest can be withdrawn monthly, or quarterly, or semi-annually, or annually.

Suppose you prefer to not have your funds on deposit for 24 months, but still want to earn high interest. Consider this plan:

$5\frac{1}{2}\%$ "Golden 12" Savings Certificates.

With this savings plan, you can purchase guaranteed $5\frac{1}{2}\%$ interest certificates for as little as \$100, and your funds must remain on deposit just 12 months. Earnings may be withdrawn in several ways depending on certificate amount. Here again, the more you save, the more you earn.

Can you still earn high interest but have your funds on deposit for even less time? Yes. With this plan:

5% Golden Savings. This has been an excellent plan for our savers for two years. You can open this guaranteed 5% account for only $100. Your funds must remain on deposit 90 days. But you can make additional deposits at any time and in any amount. No matter which plan you prefer, also consider this:

Your interest earns and earns and earns. On all three of these savings plans, interest is compounded continuously from the day of deposit. And each depositor is insured to $20,000 by the F.D.I.C.

Well, you now have the facts. You know how to protect your savings and earn guaranteed top interest at the same time. So why not come in and open one of these accounts?

After all, it's in your best interest.

Proceeds from each of the shows over the past two decades have gone to charity. On the receiving end this year, Mc-Millan said, will be Trinity School on Gougar Rd.; Easter Seals; Sheltered Workshop; Werden Buck Boys Club; Thompson School which aids physically handicapped youngsters; Cerebral Palsy and Silver Cross and St. Joseph hospitals.

High School Baseball Races Are In Home Stretch

By RUSS SANDBERG

LEMONT — The Baseball season of 1970, on a professional level, is still in a comparative stage of infancy, but for Lemont High and other area schools, the home stretch has been reached.

The Indians, who were engaged in district tourney play on May 11, 12 and 13, have only 3 regularly scheduled games remaining on the docket. They have an away date at Plainfield and then 2 home affairs with A.A. Stagg and Chicago Christian.

Incidentally, Coach Bill Ryans crew carried an impressive 8-3 mark into opening round state tourney play.

Since last heard from, Lemont has set down Sandwich 5-2 and St. Charles Borromeo 23-5, but in between, they suffered a 5-0 defeat at Minooka.

Lanky right hander Don Nelson pitched a 4 hitter in the 5-2 win over Sandwich. Don also had his strikeout pitch working, as 10 hitters went down via this route.

The Injuns rapped out a total of 10 hits, with Lee Virtel and Nelson each enjoying a 3 hit production. Also adding to the base hit total were Jeff Kendzora, Dale Yeoman, Dennis Bubinas and Ken Hutchinson.

Minooka used a big 5 run first inning surge to set up the locals last Wednesday, May 6. This was all the leverage a young chucker answering to the name of Lamping needed, for he was to shut out the locals on a slim 3 hit yield.

After a somewhat shaky first inning, Lemont pitcher John Schwer settled down to chuck good baseball. He was only touched for a total of 6 hits and compiled a 10 strikeout reading.

The local offensive figures were not exactly robust. Catcher Lee Virtel and Don Nelson once again led the way. Lee cracked out a triple and single, while Don contributed a 1 base blow.

The Friday, May 8 home affair against St. Charles Borromeo could perhaps best be described as somewhat of a weird ball game. The seminarians from nearby Lockport surprisingly jumped into an early 5-0 first inning lead, but from here on in, as the final result indicates, it was all Lemont.

During this abbreviated 5 inning contest, Coach Ryan's club lashed out a season high of 19 hits.

LOCKPORT — Softball teams can still pick up player cards at the Lockport Township Park District Office, located inside Dellwood Park.

There will be two leagues offered in the 12" Slow Pitch division. One league will be comprised of a Men's League and the other league will be made up of a High School League.

The entry fee, covering league play will be $50 which includes $10 forfeit fee. Also, a $4 fee will be charged for any player who does not live in Lockport Township.

The deadline for turning in player contracts and entry fees is Friday, May 15, at 5 p.m.

For further information contact the Lockport Park District at 838-1183.

Heavyweight finishers for Mokena: Long jump, Thomas, 4th; high jump, Thomas, 4th; 50-yd. dash, Follensbee, 3d; 100-yd., Follensbee, 4th; 220-yd., Cadwallader, 5th; 440-yd., Thomas, 4th; 420-yd. shuttle, Mokena, 5th; 440-yd. baton relay, Mokena, 4th.

In a triangular meet May 7 with Mokena, St. Raymond and Laraway the participants, Mokena heavyweights scored 50 points to win that division; Laraway was second with 38, and St. Raymond, however, that won the lightweight meet with 45 1/2 points. Laraway had 31 1/2 and Mokena, 25.

Porters Qualify 11 For State

SOUTHWEST — Lincoln-Way and Lockport Central high schools qualified 11 men for appearance in the Illinois state track meet in the University of Illinois Memorial Stadium May 22-23.

Dave Merrick, Lincoln-Way's sensational distance runner, and Clarence Bates, Lockport Central's long jump star, won their events in the annual district track meet held last Saturday at Glenbard North.

Merrick won the two mile run in 9:12.9, erasing the district record of 9:20.2 that was set by him last year, and the Lincoln-Way junior can cover the distance in better time than that. Bates also set a district record in the long jump with a leap of 23 feet, 2 1/2 inches.

Lockport Central qualifiers for the state meet are, Al Chandler, 100-yd. and 220-yd. dashes; Dave Herrod, 440-yd. dash; Bates, long jump. Lincoln-Way qualifiers are, Mike Craven, 440-yd. dash; Al Davis, 880-yd. run; Al Carlson, one mile run; Merrick, two mile run; Steve Senesac, 120-yd. high hurdles; Bill Tyler, shotput; Lincoln-Way, mile relay team which is made up of Senesac, Craven, Davis and Terry Ryan, L-W's Lee Erickson would have qualified for the mile but for a bad fall in mid-race.

Legion's Team To Organize

LOCKPORT -- There will be a meeting of the members and prospective members of the Lockport American Legion Baseball Team at the Lockport Public Library 7:30 p.m. Friday, May 15.

Any players interested in becoming a member of this team, and will not reach 19 before August 1, 1970, and attends Lockport West, Lockport Central or Lemont High School is invited to attend. Players who live in Lockport and attend Joliet Catholic or Providence are also eligible.

The Lockport American Legion Team, formerly Lockport Merchants of the South West Suburban Connie-Mack League, has been in existence four years and has compiled a record of 84 wins and 27 losses.

The team will be entered in the Legionnaire League of which there are 10 teams and in the Will County Connie-Mack League in which there will be 4 teams. Players on the team will have an opportunity to participate in three national tournaments.

Most of the Lockport home games will be under the lights at the Lockport Athletic Field with the first game starting June 5 vs. Wheaton American Legion.

Boating Clinic Arranged

SOUTHWEST — A three-session small craft boating clinic will be offered Saturday and Sunday, May 16 and 17, by the Joliet YMCA. Emphasis will be on personal safety in boating and fundamentals on sailing, canoeing and rowing.

The clinic is designed to allow the participants to practice skills in safety and handling sail boats, canoes and rowboats. Several brochures and films will be available for the participants' use.

As this is a program in fundamentals, previous experience is not necessary. This is an excellent opportunity for anyone inexperienced in boating to learn about small boating skills.

The first session will begin Saturday afternoon at 1 P.M. at the YMCA. The second and third sessions will be at the Joliet Beach Club at 5:30 p.m. Saturday and 1:30 p.m. Sunday. Registration is necessary so sufficient equipment will be available. The registration fee is $1.

Anyone interested may register at the Joliet YMCA program office, 215 N. Ottawa St. or by telephone 726-5361.

Council Okays Plans For Traffic Signals

LOCKPORT -- The Lockport City Council has approved the plans and estimates submitted by John Djerf, of Robert E. Hamilton and Associates, for a traffic light to be installed at the corner of Rt. 7 and 7th Street, subject to state approval. The work should be completed by September 1, at a cost of $44,000.

The city hopes to get 50 percent of the total cost from federal funds, under the TOPICS (Traffic Operation Procedures To Increase Capacity and Safety) program. The balance of $22,000 would come from motor fuel tax funds.

Djerf told the council the plan was "a reasonable solution" to the traffic problems at the intersection. He added a lot more could be done, but that it would also cost a lot more. The plans include widening the intersection and adding additional traffic lanes, plus curbs and sidewalks.

Mrs. Adele Kinnard appeared before the council, to ask about her real estate tax bill. Mrs. Kinnard stated the city's share of her total bill was $43.19, and asked what she received from the city in return. Mayor George Nordstrom read an itemized list, indicating how much went to the corporate fund, police pension, etc. He concluded that Mrs. Kinnard's $43.19 is the greatest bargain she receives during the year.

Mrs. Kinnard stated that although $21.46 of her total bill went to pay for general obligation bonds for the addition to the sewage treatment plant, she has neither sewer or water. Nordstrom told her the figure represented her investment in the city of Lockport. He added the city hoped to have water and sewer in her neighborhood in the near future.

In other business, the council heard from Bob Wagner, who resides on E. Division St., across from a proposed mobile home development. Wagner was concerned about what city agency would make the final determination regarding land use for the area. He was told that the city has not committed itself to any decisions regarding the proposal. The developer will have to appear before the planning commission, the zoning board of appeals and ultimately the city council.

The council also discussed off-street parking. The ordinance regarding city-owned parkways is not yet complete. The mayor said except in hardship cases, to be determined by the council, curbs must be cut, and parking surfaces covered with concrete or blacktop.

The mayor thanked the councilmen for flowers sent to his church, at its dedication.

Approved a quarter page ad, in a supplement to a local paper, congratulating the Park District on their 25th anniversary. Alderman Swen Nelson voted no, stating he thought the money would be better spent if it was donated to the Park District, to buy playground equipment. Alderman Robert White also voted no.

Approved the mayor's appointment of Lester Johnson to the Water Board, to replace George Bumette, now the street commissioner.

- Heard the names of students who have been hired by the Water Department for summer employment. Alderman George Wolfe expressed the thought that students hired should be from all parts of the city, perhaps two students from each ward.

- Heard a report from Beling Engineers that Talsma Builders started work on the addition to the treatment plant April 27.

- Alderman Robert White reported the police department would like to talk about wages.

- Alderman Wolfe said he had had complaints about drivers "peeling" in the area of the Clark Service Station.

Local Leadership Is 'Combat Key'

COOK COUNTY — "Local citizen leadership in constructive programs is the key to combatting water and air pollution," Congressman Ed Derwinski (R-4th) emphasized in a statement during Earth Day programs last week which dramatized environmental control.

The Congressman recommended that citizens support their local government in the establishment of comprehensive ordinances to maintain clean and attractive communities and cited effective anti-litter programs, which community groups have sponsored.

"If we all act, even if the action is only in our own back yard, we can make immediate, positive steps to protect the environment," Derwinski observed.

Derwinski pointed out that in addition to the Federal level, most of our states have passed legislation to combat water and air pollution. "The emphasis must now be placed upon continuous citizen cooperation with local officials as well as coordination at all levels of government to insure that high minimum standards against pollution are maintained," he added.

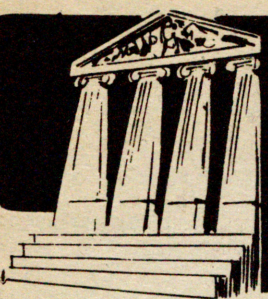

"We have provided the tools and success of the nationwide effort really rests on leadership at the grassroots level," the Congressman stated.

Follow-Up On Census

SOUTHWEST — A.A. Wills reports good progress in the follow-up phase of the 1970 Census of Population and Housing. Census takers are visiting homes from which no questionnaires were mailed back, as well as those from which questionnaires were returned incompletely filled out.

Wills, the District Manager, asks householders to welcome these census takers when they call and to give them full cooperation in getting the required census information.

Most of the census takers are women. Each wears a red, white, and blue identification badge which is her official credential. It bears her signature and certifies that she is authorized to perform the duties of a Census Enumerator, and has sworn to keep confidential all census information given her.

New Hope Magazine is another tool of evangelism that has been added to all the other multiplied ministries of the Shiffer Evangelistic Association, along with its weekly radio broadcast, the Shiffer Revival Hour.

Gonorrhea
Is Rising

COOK COUNTY -- "More Illinoisans contracted gonorrhea last year than caught measles," announced Dr. John B. Hall, director of Cook County Department of Public Health, recently. "In fact, there were more reported cases of gonorrhea than there were of measles, mumps, chickenpox, scarlet fever, and tuberculosis combined. The incidence of syphilis is also on the increase."

In Illinois, as in most states, teen-agers and young adults account for nearly half of the total cases reported. Through the first six months of 1969, reported cases totaled 3,000 more than for the same period last year.

"Prompt treatment of every case is the first step in prevention," stated Dr. Hall. "Because gonorrhea is extremely painful in the male patient, it is safe to assume that he will seek immediate medical care. The female is less fortunate, however, because in her the infection in the early stages is relatively painless. Therefore, a great deal of damage can be done to the female reproductive organs before symptoms appear," Dr. Hall added.

More than 430 College of DuPage students have been named to the dean's list for their outstanding academic records during the winter quarter of classes. Among them were Daniel Driscoll and Nicholas Mokolke of Lemont.

Among the names of students listed on the Southern Illinois University dean's list for the winter quarter were Pamela Brown of 326 Freehauf St., who had a perfect, straight A average; also David R. Sniegowski of 542 Houston St.

What's AHEAD

Saving Money

WILL COUNTY — Homeowners over 65 years of age who applied for the $1,500 Homestead exemption are reminded to keep the pink copy of their application form, according to Will County Deputy Treasurer W.F. (Wally) Schuetz.

"When they file for the exemption again next year," Schuetz explained, "all they'll have to do is present the pink copy. We'll do the rest of the work for them."

Schuetz said approximately 7,500 homestead applications were filed this year.

Schuetz said the law requires annual filing to claim the $1,500 exemption for those over 65 years of age. Those who have already applied only have to file the pink copy of their application after January 1, 1971, to claim the exemption next year, he said.

Those who will become 65 years of age by December 31, 1970, will have to complete the entire process, which includes filing the application and attaching a copy of the deed to the application.

Petitioners Want To Bring Industry To Frankfort

FRANKFORT — Two petitions for annexation were adopted by the village board at its last meeting. One is for a 10 acre tract at Laraway and Center Rds. where Kenneth Ensminger, who operates a trucking business, plans to establish warehouses and terminal facilities.

The other tract, 11 acres, is on the west side of Center Rd., opposite the Mobil Chemical plant. Attorney George E. Sangmeister, who represented both petitioners, did not disclose to what use the 11-acre tract would be put but other sources say a match factory is planned by a New York firm.

This is part of the industrial district but when property is annexed it reverts to residential. Therefore, hearings will be held by the village zoning board of appeals on petitions asking for industrial classification for the two tracts on May 20.

Also on the zoning board's agenda next week is a request for re-classification in Lincoln Meadows to permit erection of three apartment buildings. The site is low and would require considerable work to put it in shape, it was reported.

Village Attorney August Santoro was instructed to draft a traffic ordinance for Frankfort. If arrests are made on the uniform traffic code tickets fines collected will go to the county. If fines are imposed for violations of the village ordinances the money will go to the village, Santoro told the board.

The village board decided to employ another policeman for fulltime duty. He will be appointed after passing physical and psychological examinations. Tentative date for the appointment is June 1. The man selected will attend police school at the University of Illinois for six weeks before assuming his duties, according to Chief A.D. Massey.

The board purchased a new squad car from Phillips Chevrolet. Phillips bid of $1,931.21 was low. The only other bidder, Cooper-Show Ford Agency, submitted a figure of $2,148.07. Both bids included a trade-in.

Trustees Lynn Kohlhaugen and Howard Osmus are to get estimates on the cost of repairing or replacing existing sidewalks. The village also is to get figures on the cost of extending sewer and water lines on Center Rd. to Laraway Rd. Property owners would have to pay for the extensions.

A letter was received from Jim Kelly, of the Wagon Wheel restaurant, asking payment of $400 for alleged damage to his pump and well. He claims that the village had agreed to inform him when the test was run on its new well on Nebraska St., so he could make certain that he had a supply of water on hand and could turn off his pump, but that it failed to do so. The test on the new well, Kelly claims, exhausted his well and burned out his pump. The board decided the village was not responsible.

Supt. Leroy Olson, of the Frankfort school system, appeared before the board to ask if the village would share its portion of the state income tax with the school district. He was informed that the village was facing heavy expenditures and would need all the revenue it could get.

Shot Schedule Reported

LEMONT — Area children between the ages of one year through third grade age, will be able to receive anti-rubella vaccine free of charge at local schools the morning of May 21.

The vaccination schedule announced by the Cook County Department of Public Health is Lemont Central School 410 McCarthy Rd., 9 to 9:25 a.m.; St. Cyril and Methodius, 607 Sobieski, 9:30 to 9:55; St.

Patrick, State and Logan, 10 to 10:25 and Oakwood Public, 10:30 to 11:15 a.m.

The public health department is making this vaccine available to all suburban Cook County children whose parents have signed a consent form, or who are accompanied by a parent.

Rubella, commonly known as German or three-day measles, is a killer. This disease is mild enough when contracted by children, but when caught by a woman in her early months of pregnancy, this virus can cause death or tragic birth defects in the developing fetus.

The child may be born with an impediment to sight or hearing, or a total loss of these two senses. Rubella may be the cause of birth defects such as congenitally damaged hearts or mental retardation.

An estimated 50,000 children died in the womb or were born with defects because their mothers contracted German measles while pregnant during the 1964-65 epidemic. The vaccine will prevent rubella. The primary target for vaccination is the child. Young boys and girls are main sources of rubella infection.

Overtime Is OK With 4

By LOUISE SCHALLER

ROMEORVILLE — Mayor O'Hara's letter of veto received a "no-no" from the trustees at the village meeting held May 6. A measure passed at the April 15 meeting in regard to time and a half salary for part time employees of the police department was the subject of the veto.

O'Hara said the definition of emergency service was vague and lacked specific direction. Trustees Jerry Capps, Len Kolpacki, John Veeniga and Harry Betzel voted to override the veto, while William Bessette supported the mayor. Trustee D. Rosendahl was absent.

Trustees informed the mayor and police chief it would be their duty to define emergency situations. Mayor O'Hara told the trustees if this was their desire, he did not want "backlash" complaints.

A communication from Alexander Construction Company for a letter of clearance on Subdivision 11 brought a request for a special meeting between trustees and the builder. The meeting has been scheduled for May 16 at 9:30 a.m. in the Civic Center.

John Umanek, contractor, told trustees the remodeling work on the old village garage is 90 per cent completed, and requested partial payment of $17,000. The trustees voted to borrow $8,000 from the building permits fund and will pay the balance when the tax money is received.

A fee of $600 per year was set for the recently issued service bar permit for the Nordic House Restaurant. John Veeniga cast the lone "no" vote.

The trustees have received numerous complaints about air pollution, and at this meeting Mrs. John Deegan, of 4 Ambassador, told trustees of an ordinance recently passed in Wisconsin, which she felt might have features that would benefit Romeoville.

The next regular meeting is May 20 at 7:30 p.m. in the Civic Center.

That Time - Tax Time - Here Again

WILL COUNTY -- It's time to pay taxes again.

Withholding federal and state income taxes are always with us and those who did not have enough withheld or have sources of income upon which final settlement had not been made, had to make book by April 15.

The taxes now due are those on real and personal property.

Personal property taxes must be paid in full by June 1. The first installment on real estate taxes is also due and after June 1 will carry a penalty. The second installment will be due Sept. 1.

Beginning June 1 taxes will be collected by the county treasurer. Until then the task is being performed by the township collectors. Burnett Schram is the collector for Frankfort Township; in New Lenox the collector is Alfred Emiley.

The tax bills are made up from rates established in the office of County Clerk Clara Hartley Woodard after the board of review has finished with all the assessors books and the state revenue department lists the valuations on railroads and capital stocks.

Each taxing body files a levy with the county clerk, adopting a figure it calculates will bring them sufficient funds to meet its expenditures. Making the rates is complicated process and takes weeks of intensive effort.

The taxes paid in 1970 are on rates established on the 1969 valuations. In Frankfort Township persons living within the boundaries of the Village of Frankfort have a rate of $6.489 per equalized assessed valuation as compared to $5.737 for 1968, an increase of 13.1 per cent.

Those living in the Frankfort area but outside the village have a rate of $5.731 as compared to $4.953, an increase of 15.7 per cent.

The total 1969 rate for those living within the village of Mokena is $6.511 as compared to $6.083 in 1968, an increase of 07 per cent. The rate outside the village is $5.815 as compared to $5.386 last year, an increase of 08 per cent.

In the Village of New Lenox the total rate for 1969 is $6.437 for those in Lincoln-Way High School, as compared to $5.670 in 1968, an increase of 13.5 per cent; those living in the village but are in Joliet High School District 204 have a 1969 rate of $5.982 as compared to $5.354 in 1968, an increase of 11.7 per cent.

Outside the village in H.S. Dist. 210 (L-W) the 1969 rate is $5.483 as compared to $5.032 in 1968 an increase of 09 per cent, and outside the village in Dist. 204 the present rate is $5.028 as compared to $4.716 last year, an increase of 06 per cent.

Broken down the rates for each taxing body are:

Students Clean Road By L-W High

NEW LENOX — Thirty-five members of the humanities class at Lincoln-Way High School put a rainy day to use the hard way. They have been studying and talking about pollution and environmental control and decided to do something practical about it.

There is a road that begins or ends at Francis Rd. and then goes south until it passes along the eastern boundary of the L-W campus and then crosses U.S. 30 to pass by Schmuhl School and continue its journey south. Maybe somewhere it passes another school, which would be quite appropriate because most people call it Schoolhouse Rd.

Just like boys named Rhodes, Rhoades, or Rodes or even Roads, were formerly nicknamed Dusty, so lanes and highways passing schools usually are referred to as Schoolhouse Road.

Anyway, that is the road on which the L-W humanities class launched its clean-up campaign. It cleared the ditches and shoulders along both sides of the road from U.S. 30 to Francis Rd. The Village of Mokena furnished a dump truck and the students filled it two and a half times.

Summer School Is Soon

LEMONT — Lemont Township High School will offer tuition-free summer school classes starting June 22 and ending July 31. The summer project is being supported by Federal funds under Title I.

The objectives of the program are to increase English, speech and reading communications skills, and in business mathematics through a core media of consumer education materials. Maximum use of local resource personnel and materials will be used in an effort to make the program relevant and practical.

A student may enroll in one or both courses in the program. Courses being offered are consumer education, one half credit, from 8:30 to 10:30, and typing, a quarter credit, from 10:30 to 12:30.

Due to the composition of the consumer education course, students who have previously failed a course in English, speech, general mathematics I, II, business arithmetic, sales, or social studies, may choose to apply their half credit to any one of the previously mentioned courses. Students not having prior failures in the courses will receive a half credit in consumer education.

Enrollment for summer school began May 11 and ends June 9. Registration is at the high school Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. For additional information, contact the high school, 257-6172.

MRS. ALMA YATES, center, principal of Kelvin Grove School, who will retire at the end of this term, will be honored at the May 14 Kelvin-Milne Grove PTA meeting. Mrs. Yates has taught in District 91 since 1949. Officers for the 1970-71 school year will be installed at the meeting, scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at Kelvin Grove School. The Kelvin Grove Symphonic Band and the mixed chorus will perform their state contest numbers. Pictured from left are, Mrs. Tom Drake, program chairman for the Dist. 91 PTA, Mrs. Yates, and Mrs. Charles Greenway, president of the district's PTA. (GRAPHIC Photo)

Rites For Bowmen Boy Held

LEMONT — The second grade classmates of eight-year old Bradley T. Bowmen were the guard of honor in funeral services Monday at St. Cyril and Methodius Catholic Church. The Bowmen boy was struck by an auto while on a bicycle in front of his home Thursday, May 7.

All students of the school, where the boy had been a member of the basketball team, attended services. He was to have made his first Holy Communion with classmates this coming Sunday.

The accident took place in front of the family's home on Rt. 2, the frontage road along I-55 near the Lemont and Downers Grove turnoff. The boy had returned from classes and was riding his bike out of the driveway.

A westbound auto driven by David Owen, 44, of Lemont Rt. 2, struck the boy, according to Elgin district state police. Owen was charged with failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident.

Surviving are the boy's mother and father, Donald and Virginia Banic Bowmen; a brother, Mark, 15, and a sister, Lisa, 13; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Banic of Plainfield, and the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bowmen of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

Services were from the Marckiewicz Funeral Home to the St. Cyril and Methodius Church. Interment was at the church cemetery.

Mr. Bowmen is active in the area Little League and the school basketball team. He is employed by the Frank Gill Co., of Chicago.

Fine Revenue Up

LEMONT — Lemont's revenue from traffic and other fines through the Circuit Court of Cook County for March was up over the first two months of 1970. March revenue was $1,153. The combined revenue from January and February was $1,811.

New Atom Smasher Will Treat Cancer

Copyright 1970
World Book Science Service

The builders of nuclear weapons are now putting together an atom smasher that will be used to destroy the malignant tumors. Dr. Louis Rosen, a nuclear physicist at the Atomic Energy Commission's meson facility, Los Alamos, N.M., says the new treatment is a "golden opportunity" to make a significant difference in the lives of the 750,000 new hard tumor cancer patients each year.

Now under construction is a $56 million, half mile-long linear accelerator (atom-smasher) to create pi mesons (pions) - - infinitesimally small, negatively-charged particles. The pions will be used in a new medical center to be built in conjunction with the accelerator. Biophysicists have discovered that pions are valuable weapons in the ward on cancer because of their great potency and extremely short lifetime.

Hard tumor patients are now dependent upon x-rays, cobalt, gamma ray, or other radiation techniques to burn out the malignancy. Such treatments, which require high doses of dangerous radiation, can sometimes take years. Pions on the other hand can provide the same quantity of rays in less than an hour.

"What is even more dramatic," Dr. Rosen points out, "doctors will be able to tailor the pion's beam to the exact location, size and shape of the tumor, and to focus a maximum dose within the tumor so that there will be minimum destruction to healthy surrounding tissue. Such phenomena are not reproducible with any other type of radiation," says Dr. Rosen.

Unfortunately until it can be financed, the cancer center is at least five years away from realization. Meanwhile, pion experiments on animals continue to perfect techniques. When the center is finally completed, the Los Alamos compound, once noted for its contribution to atomic bombs, will become one of the world's most important cancer treatment facilities.

WARNING NO. TWO — Zoology professor, Wayne Davis of the University of Kentucky warns that pollutants killing many of earth's lower life forms will eventually become toxic enough to wipe out all of mankind.

SNOW HOUSE

Some Eskimos in the central Canadian Arctic still build igloos by stacking blocks of wind-packed snow in a rising spiral of ever smaller circles. Heat from a lamp keeps the igloo snug and comfortable inside. The cold outside prevents the house from melting. The family eats and sleeps on a platform made of hard-packed snow and covered with furs.

Guns Help To Produce Hail

1970, World Book Science Service

The Russians are shooting off guns, but there's nothing to worry about. They're loaded with lead and silver iodide crystals.

What on Earth for, you ask? Well, the answer is not on Earth, but in the sky. In western Russia, around Armenia and the Caucasus Mountains, giant hailstones damage millions of dollars worth of crops every year. Firing iodide crystals into hail-forming clouds is a good way to reduce the size of the hailstones.

Most of the impurities are left behind as water evaporates from the Earth and rises into the atmosphere. Very tiny droplets of this pure water can be cooled far below the normal freezing point of 32 degrees F. So tiny water droplets have time to join to other tiny droplets, growing and growing before they freeze into hail and drop to Earth.

That's how giant hailstones are formed.

Iodide crystals change this process. When the crystals are released in the hail clouds, they sneak inside the pure water droplets. Ice crystals form and stick to the iodide crystals until the whole water droplet is frozen. Thus, the tiny droplets freeze before they can collect into giant hailstones. This Russian trick works so well we are thinking of trying it here in the United States.

In the puzzle code, each letter stands for the letter before it in the alphabet. For example, X in the first word is really W, the letter before X. Substitute all the letters and try to solve the mystery riddle. The answer to the riddle is in code upside down at the bottom of the picture.

ANSWER: What kind of stones will melt if you put them in your pocket?

SOLUTION: Hailstones.

OPINION PAGE

It's Police Week

This is National Police Week. It began May 10 and continues through May 16.

National Police Week is set aside as such by an act of congress and Presidential proclamation to give those who serve the law and enforce the law a time of honor and respect.

Police and the law are the only protection people have today against the chaos that would result if the lawless, the nitwits, the subversives and the criminals were to go their ways unchecked.

There are elements on the loose today on the streets and on college campuses, aided by the bleeding-hearts — some of whom have infiltrated judicial benches — who are bent on overturning our society through destruction of our system of law.

Over the years our work has brought us into contact with many policemen. The majority have been dedicated to their jobs. We have found the majority of them courteous, ready to help those in need, and some have saved lives at the risk of their own. One of the qualities possessed by most of the police officers we have observed, is their patience. The abuse they take, verbal and physical, without retaliation is past belief.

It has become the fashion, launched by the various rebellion elements, to charge "police brutality" when officers are forced or required by circumstances to defend themselves. TV coverage of riots never show the mobs hurling rocks and bottles of filth, or wielding knives, guns and clubs. The only time the cameras begin grinding — apparently — is then the police finally start swinging nightsticks to prevent a situation from getting completely out of hand.

A dollar won't do as much today; people won't either.

Police are deserving of strong support by the law abiding. Persons who see something that arouses their suspicions should call police. They would rather get a dozen calls that proved fruitless than miss one that would result in prevention of a crime or apprehension of a criminal.

Police have been working under a handicap imposed by the Warren court and other ultraliberal judges for sometime. It is quite frustrating for officers to bring a criminal to book and then see him freed on some technicality that the court had just made a technicality. It is also frustrating to police to see the courts turn known criminals loose on minimum bonds to again ply their criminal trades. But the police keep on doing their duty to protect and preserve order, for which we should be grateful.

Our government is built on laws, designed to protect individuals, and police departments are a necessary and important part of the program. We need police and police need the respect and support of the public — they merit it.

Judicial Salvation

William J. Scott, the Illinois Attorney General, is vigorously working to bring relief from present and threatened pollution in this state.

He probably is the one public official that is most aware of the dangers we face and of how perilously close we are to losing the battle to save our environment.

Other persons in government have made occasional forays into this area of public concern, and most have just become aware that there is an issue.

The battle to save our environment may be the ultimate test of whether our judicial system will work, Scott has said.

"The test of any system of law is whether it can — under emergency situations — respond to the needs of the people. We are in a crisis situation, fighting to save our planet. We have built the finest system of legal justice in the world. Now we must prove that, working within it, we can meet the greatest challenge ever faced by any generation — the battle for survival," he said at the commemoration of earth day in Chicago on April 22.

Scott said his legal battles against polluters of air and water began with the basic concept of the American legal system — "that for every wrong, there must be a legal remedy."

Since July 1, 1969, when through new pollution-control laws, drafted by Scott, went into effect, the Illinois Attorney General's office has sued most of the major air and water polluters in Illinois, seeking to end their pollution.

"This is a new field. We have had to develop new legal tools, build new case law, and come up with whole new concepts to deal with the problems of ecology," Scott said.

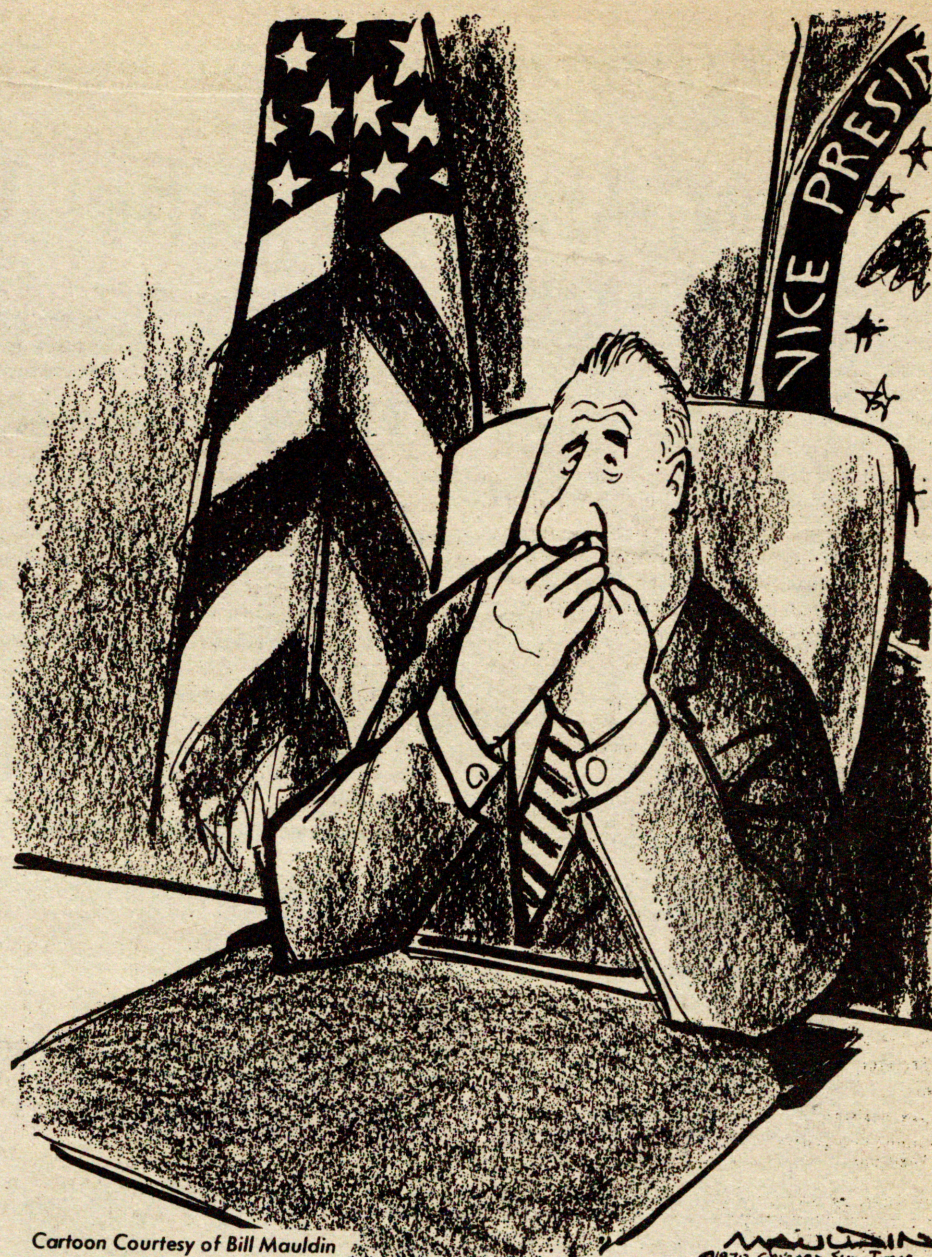

Scott said, through his law suits, he feels that his office has helped focus public attention on the polluters.

"This has been shown in our intervention opposing Commonwealth Edison's request for a rate increase. We hold that a public utility has a responsibility to obey the pollution laws of the state before it can ask for a rate increase. The public has agreed with us, and a combination of legal and public pressure has resulted in the utility's decision to buy five million tons of low sulfur coal, which, earlier, they said could not be done.

"In our suit against the airlines, we again exerted the combined pressure of the law and public opinion, and the airlines agreed to install pollution-control devices by 1972, rather than their original deadline of 1980," Scott pointed out.

The Attorney General said the public can insist that government and industry perform a service or produce a product without destroying the environment.

"In America, we will get the kind of government and the kind of environment we demand. The message must be loud and clear — the American people will no longer tolerate the poisoning of their air and water and the continued destruction of our most priceless heritage — our environment."

Countdown Is On

The Lockport Lions Club has 19 days to raise a "substantial amount" of money. On June 1, they must convince the District 205 High School Board that they will be able to raise the $130,000 which is needed if co-curricular activities are to continue in the district for the coming school year. To date, they have raised about $30,000 toward their goal.

The Lions began their fund drive, through the sale of activity tickets, after the board announced that all co-curricular activities would be dropped next year, due to the district's dire financial condition. Athletics, school yearbooks, band, clubs, dances, and school newspapers are among the activities that have been dropped. The leaders of the drive are concerned about the lack of these programs, believing them to be an integral part of the students' education.

As a result, they devised a plan to sell activity tickets, which will entitle the holder to attend basketball and football games, concerts, plays, track meets — anything that involves the activities program. The only thing not covered is tournaments. Adult tickets are $30 and students tickets $15.

The Lions feel all the talk about splitting the district has not helped ticket sales. They contend that even if the district is split, money will be needed to keep co-curricular activities in the three schools. If sufficient funds are not raised, the money collected so far will be returned. The Lions, their wives, friends, and many students conducted a house-to-house canvass in Lockport on Monday night.

They plan an identical canvass on the west side of the district in the very near future.

Business, civic clubs, and industry have been asked to contribute to the cause. Many have responded. Whether or not you agree with their plan, you must admit the Lions have taken on a tremendous job.

As of this writing, if you figure the old way, via the new math, they are still nearly $100,000 short of their goal. If you support their endeavor, now is the time to get out your checkbook. If you have just purchased a new lawn mower, or are otherwise short of funds, an installment plan is available.

Expensive

Empty beer and soft drink bottles and cans cost 63 cents each.

That's what it costs to pick up the many thousands discarded annually along state highways.

Highway maintenance crews throughout the state have started the annual spring cleanup of right of ways along state highways. It is the first of several cleanup operations performed throughout the year.

The spring cleanup is scheduled prior to the first grass mowing along the state highways. The harvest of litter and debris tossed thoughtlessly by motorists along the highways is tremendous.

Cleaning up the litter adds about $3,000,000 annually to the cost of maintaining our highways. The money could be better spent for other things.

The cleanup program yields an average of more than a cubic yard of litter and debris for each mile on the 16,000-mile system of state highways.

Added to the expense of picking up the debris is the cost of disposing of it. Depending on the areas of the state, the cost of disposal ranges from $1 to $12 a truckload. It all figures in the 63 cents an item total cost.

There are stiff penalties for littering highways but the laws are difficult to enforce. So, motorists, dispose of trash and debris, but not along the road.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

from Southwest Graphic readers are welcomed. Letters should not exceed 300 words and must be the original copy. Each must be signed, though the name of the writer will not be published if requested. The Southwest Graphic will exercise the right to edit letters to comply with these limitations.
